LAX Terminals Feature Artwork by Local Artists

Los Angeles World Airports, along with the City of Los Angeles Department of Cultural Affairs, has announced the opening of three new exhibitions on display at LAX featuring works by Los Angeles artists. The exhibits are on display in Terminals 1, 2 and TBIT. Open to both passengers and the public, the exhibits examine the City's natural and urban geography. For more on the LAX public art display click, <http://www.lawa.org/lax/printExhibit.cfm>

Visit LAX's Flight Path Learning Center and Museum

Unique among the fine aviation museums in Southern California is the Flight Path Learning Center, the only aviation museum and research center situated at a major airport. Additionally, it is the only facility with a primary emphasis on contributions of civil aviation to the history and development of Southern California. The Flight

Path Learning Center is located in the LAX Imperial Terminal, on the south side of the airport. There is no admission charge to visit the Learning Center, and it is open Tuesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. For more information about the Flight Path Learning Center visit <http://www.flightpath.us/index.htm>
